

Blow Thy Horn Hunter

William Cornysh

Cantus

Blow thy horn hunt - er and blow thy horn on high, There Sore thus the deer stricken is, and yet she bled no whit; She
As I stood under a bank, the deer shoff on the mead; I There she goeth, see ye not how she goeth o'er the plain? And He to go, and I to go, but he ran fast a - fore; I To the covert both they went, for I found where she lay; An I was weary of the game, and went to the tavern to drink; Now is a doe in yon - der wood, in faith she will not die. Now lay so fair I could not miss; Lord I was glad of it! struck her so that down she sank, but yet she was not dead. Now if ye lust to have a shot, I'll war - rant her bar - rain. bade him shoot and strike the doe, for I might shoot no more. Now ar - row in her haunch she hent for faint she might not bray.

the con - struc - tion of the same, what do you mean or think? Now
